Prayers by Anglican Women

Canterbury Press is pleased to be part of a grass-roots effort to unite Anglican women from all corners of the globe. With Morehouse Publishing in New York

we are working to compile a new collection of prayers by women from throughout the Anglican Communion. Lifting Women's Voices: Changing the world through prayer will be published in the late spring of 2009. All royalties from this project will go directly to the International Anglican Women's Network and the Episcopal Relief and Development fund.

The book will feature a foreword by the US Presiding Bishop Katharine Jefferts Schori, and the editorial board includes, among others, Jane Williams (UK), Phoebe Griswold (US), Jenny Te Paa (New Zealand) and Faith Meitaki (Kenya).

We invite you to help create this prayer collection by submitting a prayer (if you are of the right gender!) The editors wish for as many countries and communities as possible to be represented. The prayer texts can be e-mailed to prayers@cpq.org or to Rebecca Hills at rebecca@scm-canterburypress.co.uk. Please note that the final submission date for prayers is October 15th 2008 and kindly note the editors are under no obligation to use submitted material.
