Faith in Older People, in collaboration with Positive Dementia, presents a one-day workshop on Spiritual Journaling

Saturday 23rd May from 9.30am – 4.30pm at
Royal Scots Club, Abercromby Place Edinburgh

There is a history over many centuries of individuals keeping journals of their spiritual journeys.

In recent times it has become an even more popular activity, particularly as life becomes increasingly complex and demanding. In these circumstances the Journal can become an oasis of quiet contemplation and taking stock.

In this short course John Killick, himself an experienced journaler, will take participants through the practicalities of keeping a journal, with particular emphasis on creative ways into accessing insights and shaping the given material.

He will also provide many examples of journaling, past and present.

Facilitator John Killick is a poet, writer and broadcaster

The cost of the workshop is £80 and lunch will be provided. To book a place or for further information, please contact Faith in Older People on 0131 346 7981 or email info@fiop.org.uk
