You will lead and represent Christian Aid in Scotland with all stakeholders, including the sponsoring churches, the Scottish government and the wider public. You will inspire and equip individuals and institutions in Scotland to play their part in ending poverty and injustice. To do this you will demonstrate significant leadership experience, success in influencing people, strategic team management and a passion for justice. We value the contribution every person makes to the success of our organisation. That's why you can expect a wide range of rewards and benefits, including a generous holiday allowance, a season ticket loan, and flexibility that will ensure you enjoy a good work/life balance. We value diversity and aspire to reflect this in our workforce.

We welcome applications from people from all sections of the community, irrespective of race, colour, gender, age, disability or sexual orientation. You will be required to have a standard disclosure check from the Criminal Records Bureau. As this post is UK based, non-EC nationals will require current and valid permission to work in the UK, as the Department of Employment will only issue work permits in exceptional circumstances and for limited periods only.
