Tuesdays 28 October —2 December

7.30—9.30pm

Edinburgh Diocesan Centre,
21a Grosvenor Crescent, EH12 5EL

Cost £20 /£15 concession

This short course aims to give a greater understanding of the man Francis of Assisi and his call to universal sister and brotherhood.

It presumes no previous knowledge and therefore is a basic introduction to the saint of Assisi. It is open to all who feel they would like to get to know his world, his response to God and his subsequent mission on a deeper level.

A commitment to personal reflection and group sharing is integral to each evening, which will look at specific themes and include stillness and Franciscan prayer.

Each evening will last between 1½ and 2 hours with a short break for refreshments.

For further details please contact Elspeth Strachan on 0131 538 7033 or visit the events section of www.edinburgh.anglican.org
